Item 4. Purpose of Transaction

Item 4 of Southeastern's previously filed Schedule 13D entitled "Purpose of Transaction" is hereby amended and supplemented by adding the following at the end thereof:

Southeastern Asset Management, Inc. ("Southeastern") today, with the assistance of its client Longleaf Partners Fund, initiated a request under Section 220 of the Delaware General Corporation Law to require Telephone and Data Systems, Inc. ("TDS") to disclose information related to its purported retention of a nationally recognized consulting firm (the "Consultant") and that firm's findings and recommendations to TDS.

In multiple conversations with Southeastern, TDS's Board has repeatedly cited its Consultant's report(s) and findings as justification for TDS's strategy; however, the Board and management have refused to disclose any details surrounding such engagement or its findings. Southeastern believes that the Board and management have an obligation to act in the best interest of all shareholders by pursuing that corporate strategy which maximizes shareholder value. As part of that process, Southeastern believes the Board must provide some level of disclosure to interested shareholders and not expect shareholders to act "on faith" without supporting disclosure of facts and research. Accordingly, Southeastern has informally iterated its request for a copy of the Consultant's report cited by the Board. TDS's Board and management have refused. Because of that response, Southeastern is filing today's request.

Southeastern and/or one or more of its affiliates and investment advisory clients, including Longleaf Partners Fund (collectively, the "Southeastern Group"), may purchase from time to time in open market or privately negotiated transactions additional Securities, or options or derivatives related thereto. From time to time, one or more members of the Southeastern Group may also hold discussions or otherwise communicate with the Issuer's management, Board and other representatives of the Issuer, as well as other shareholders of the Issuer or other relevant parties, to discuss potential strategic alternatives available to the Issuer, including, but not limited to, a recapitalization, a sale of all or a portion of the Issuer or other matters that may include one or more of the other actions described in subsections (a) through (j) of Item 4 of Schedule 13D. The Southeastern Group may also pursue other available courses of action, but it has elected not to submit Board of Director nominees for election at the Issuer's 2009 Annual Meeting. In addition, the Southeastern Group may determine to dispose of all or a portion of its Securities.

Except as set forth above, none of the Reporting Persons has any plans or proposals which relate to, or could result in, any of the matters referred to in subsections (a) through (j) of Item 4 of Schedule 13D. Each member of the Southeastern Group may, at any time, review or reconsider its position with respect to the Issuer and formulate plans or proposals with respect to any of such matters.

Item 5. Interest In Securities Of The Issuer

Item 5 shall be amended and restated as follows:

(a) The aggregate number and percentage of Securities to which this Schedule 13D relates is 3,075,748 shares of the common stock of the Issuer, constituting approximately 5.8% of the 53,197,083 shares outstanding.

(b) Southeastern generally has the sole power to dispose of or to direct the disposition of the Securities held for discretionary accounts of its investment clients, and may be granted the sole power to vote or direct the vote of such Securities; such powers may be retained by or shared with the respective clients for shared or non-discretionary accounts, for which Southeastern generally makes recommendations with respect thereto. Shares held by any Series of Longleaf Partners Funds Trust are reported in the "shared" category.

(c) Transactions in the Securities during the past sixty days are attached as Schedule II.

(d) The investment advisory clients of Southeastern have the sole right to receive and, subject to notice, to withdraw the proceeds from the sale of the Securities, and the sole power to direct the receipt of dividends from any of the Securities held for their respective accounts. Such clients may also terminate the investment advisory agreements without penalty upon appropriate notice. Southeastern does not have an economic interest in any of the Securities reported herein.

(e) Not applicable.
